Government
Sale of Furniture and Equipment

Once again the Washington Public will have an opportunity to purchase furniture and equipment, from the Department of Labor, such as was used in the houses occupied by Government Workers during the war.

The sale will be held on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays of each week, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m., starting Monday, October 13, 1919, at the storehouse, North Capitol and D streets.

The sale includes new and nearly new Bedroom, Living Room and Dining Room Furniture, Blankets, Linens, Chinaware, Glassware and Kitchen Utensils.

An excellent opportunity is afforded the small buyer, as each and every item will be sold at set prices in any quantity desired.

Sale conducted under the supervision of the United States Housing Corporation.

Try
this easy way to heal your skin with Resinol

If you are suffering from eczema, ringworm or similar itching, red, unsightly skin affection, bathe the sore places with Resinol Soap and hot water, then gently apply a little Resinol Ointment. You will be astonished how instantly the itching stops and healing begins. In most cases the skin quickly becomes clear and healthy again, at very little cost.

Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap are sold by all dealers in drugs and toilet goods.

Keep Your Liver Active, Your System Purified and Free From Colds by Taking Calotabs,
the Nausealess Calomel Tablets, that are Delightful, Safe and Sure.

Physicians and Druggists are advising their friends to keep their systems purified and their organs in perfect working order as a protection against the return of influenza. They know that a clogged up system and a liver favor colds, influenza and serious complications.

To cut short a cold overnight and to prevent serious complications take one Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea, no griping, no sickening after effects. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified and refreshed and you are feeling like a new man with appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please—no danger.

Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. Every druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not perfectly delighted with Calotabs.

BURIAL SERVICES FOR D. W. LOTHROP

Funeral services for Daniel W. Lothrop, a Government employee for fifty-four years, who died Friday at his home, 1721 North Capitol street, were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at his home. The services were conducted by the Rev. G. L. Humphreys, and interment was in Glenwood Cemetery.

Mr. Lothrop was born at St. Albans, Somerset county, Maine, May 21, 1841. He was educated in the public schools of Somerset county and at Hartford Academy. After his graduation from the academy he taught school for a short time, and when he was twenty-one years old went to Boston where he secured employment.

During the last year of the civil war, he assisted in recruiting Company F, Twentieth Maine Infantry, and had just gotten into camp preparatory to the move for the front when the war ended.

In February, 1865, he was appointed to a position in the office of the Sixth Auditor for the Treasury Department. He had been in that office continuously up to the time of his death.

Mr. Lothrop is survived by a son, Dr. Edwin S. Lothrop, a well known Washington physician, and by two daughters, Mrs. Alice L. Thompson and Mrs. Ella L. Rhomastine.

MRS. MARIE FITZGERALD.

Funeral services for Mrs. Marie Fitzgerald, wife of Joseph A. Fitzgerald, were held this morning at the home of her brother, Mrs. Mary Neville Weaver, 1415 Eleventh street northwest. Following the services at the home, requiem mass was celebrated at the Church of the Immaculate Conception. Interment was in Mount Olivet Cemetery. Mrs. Fitzgerald died Friday afternoon.

Her father, Arthur E. Weaver, died recently.

MRS. AMANDA B. WHITE.

Mrs. Amanda B. White, wife of Capt. Albert B. White, civil war veteran, died yesterday at Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia. Mrs. White, who made her home at 2603 Fourteenth street northwest, was well known in this city. She is survived by her husband and three daughters, Mrs. Walter J. Vernier, Mrs. Henry A. Vale, and Mrs. Frank B. Whitaker. Arrangements for the funeral services are being made today.

Editorial

During our Anniversary Sale we received many congratulatory letters. Here is one that was especially pleasing to us.

Lansburgh & Bro., Washington, D. C. Gentlemen:

I am one of the busy women of Washington, with little time to shop. I have been in several stores lately and have been struck with the difference of the clerks. I know the after-the-war condition is responsible for much trouble everywhere. I made a number of purchases at your store today and was very much pleased with the manner of your clerks, they seemed interested, attentive and kind. I congratulate you and them and will make your store my store in the future.

Yours truly,
Mrs. A. C. W.

Letters of this kind make us feel that we are accomplishing what we are trying most to do—"Render Service to the Public."
